2013 Leadership Conference

"Growing Leaders in Our Community"

Ozarka College TRiO Program Hosts Leadership Event

Sixteen students, along with several staff and guests, recently participated in a Leadership workshop at Ozarka College. The workshop entitled, "Growing Leaders in Our Community," was directed by the Ozarka College TRiO SSS program, and featured guest speaker Ryan Eller from Paradigm Shift (myparadigmshift.org).

Eller's program was entitled, "We are the Music Makers and Dreamers of Dreams." Eller guided the students through exercises to define personal goals and values, as well as put those goals and values into action. The remainder of the program, conducted by Ozarka's TRiO staff, explored the student's individual strengths. The staff shared their personal strengths, based on the Strengths Quest evaluation, and helped students recognize a variety of ways that personal strengths can be applied to school, career, and leadership.

The costs of the guest speaker, Ryan Eller, and lunch from Words and Afterwords were covered by local donors. "We were very happy to form some partnerships with community businesses who are interested in the development of future leaders" says TRiO Director, Deltha Shell. Special thanks to our sponsors for this event: Renee Clay-Circle, Modern Woodmen and Rebel Station.
