

THE HOT SHEET TOP NEWS SPRING 2013

May 3, 2013

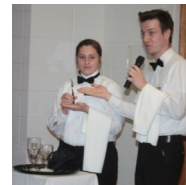

On April 25, 2013, Ozarka College TRiO SSS program hosted an annual awards banquet to recognize TRiO students and their achievements.

The event was well attended by several students, family members and college administration. The keynote address was given by Ms. Bridgette Bass of Arkadelphia. Bridgette is a TRiO program alumni and was recognized as the 2012 TRiO Achiever by the state organization, Arkansas Association of Student Assistance Programs. Bridgette provided the students with an inspirational story of how she overcame significant barriers in order to complete her education and reach her goals.

Six TRiO students received the following awards:

- Cheryl Massey, Hall of Fame
- Kathy Staggs, Student of the Year
- Steven Law, TRiO Staff Choice
- Amanda Masson, Above & Beyond
- Christy Bigness, Rising Star
- Jayson Ozbun, Tutor of the Year

Deltha Shell, Director of the TRiO program, stated that "this event was better than ever. We were able to work with several administrators and local businesses to enhance the event and provide the students with a great experience." Donated funds from Dr. and Mrs. Adam Gray, sponsored the keynote speaker. Blayne Allan Photography and members from the Ozarka College administration provided the funds for students to bring guests to the event.

The Ozarka College Culinary Department prepared and served a wonderful meal. Entertainment was provided by a local band, Deadwood Groove, who did a wonderful performance and sang "Skyfall" as a finale.
