Have you ever wanted to visit a Medieval Castle?
If so, this Cultural Event is for you.

October 21, 2011, we plan to visit the Ozark Medieval Fortress in Lead Hill, AR.

The OZARK MEDIEVAL FORTRESS is a thrilling educational, scientific, and emotional experience, a soaring flight into ages past and a living history book!

In front of visitors, authentically dressed masons, carpenters, stone carvers and dedicated artisans will work for the next 20 years raising a genuine, full-sized, fortified castle with towers ranging from 40 to 70 ft in height, a drawbridge, 6 foot wide stone walls which surround an expansive inner courtyard. Artisans using tools, techniques, and rules from 700 years ago, recreate the Middle Ages in Europe in a green environment: no electricity, no engines, just bare hands and the natural resources of the site. OZARK MEDIEVAL FORTRESS wants everyone who visits to interact with artisans and take away with them a new experience.

OZARK MEDIEVAL FORTRESS' goal is to invite Americans to adopt this project so that it will become a place unique on American soil where everyone can learn about castle heritage without needing a passport. www.ozarkmedievalfortress.com

TRiO will be hosting the murder mystery “Death by Chocolate...” on Thursday, November 10, 2011 at 6:00 p.m. in the auditorium of the Miller Building in Melbourne.

A joint party is being held at Thornbury’s Chocolates to launch the new range of Symphony Chocolates and also to celebrate the 30th birthday party of Shopin Channill, the daughter of Thornbury’s owner Cocoa Channill. What could possibly go wrong on such a happy night?

Those of you who attend will be “guests” at the party.
