

Student Support Services is a part of the federal TRiO programs, which are designed to prepare disadvantaged for successful entry into, retention in, and completion of post-secondary education. Becoming a member of Ozarka College's TRiO Student Support Services program is based on the following criteria: low income, first generation college student, documented disability, and identifiable academic need. To qualify for Student Support Services, applicants must also be pursuing an eventual four-year degree or be enrolled in a transferable Ozarka program. Student Support Services provides members with free tutoring, supplemental instruction, academic advisement, transfer counseling, transfer trips, financial aid counseling, financial aid assistance, informational workshops, and cultural opportunities.
