Academic Integrity:

Academic honesty is expected of all students. Dishonesty includes claiming credit for work others completed, lying, plagiarizing, and copying other students’ assignments. Even one incident of violating academic standards of honesty may result in an F for the assignment, an F in the course, or expulsion. A violation of academic standards will be reported to the Vice President for Academic Affairs, and the student(s) involved in the incident can appeal any action through the Academic Grievance Procedure.

Plagiarism is a very serious offense and includes copying from other students, purchasing completed assignments, copying from textbooks, claiming as one’s own work the ideas of someone else, not giving credit to a source (whether the source was directly quoted, paraphrased, or summarized), or citing a source incorrectly.

(The colors/underling above represent various changes made. These will not appear in the final copy. It was also suggested that after “plagiarizing” in the second we add a note indicating to check below for the definition; this is a good idea, but I’m not sure where the definition will appear “physically” to the first paragraph. Any ideas?)
