Please take a few minutes to click on the following link and complete the Five Minute Professional Development Survey. (When you open the page, just click on the title to get started.) The survey was developed by the Professional Development Committee of Faculty Council and is an effort to gather meaningful data about what has been effective in the past and where you would like to see professional development efforts and dollars invested in the future.

Your participation is appreciated. Thank you!!!!!!!!

http://www.ozarka.edu/extra_apps/soundings/