

Don't know what you want to be???

Then do some EXPLORATION!

“The only way to do great work is to love what you do.”
– Steve Jobs

What kind of job would you LOVE to do?
(How do you know what jobs you would love?)

LOVE

You CAN discover many good possibilities by exploring 3 things about YOU:

- your abilities (Employable skills you already possess, activities you find easy to learn)
- your interests (Subjects you enjoy, passions, activities that energize you, a “dream job”)
- and your values (Your priorities. Examples include: time with family, status in the workplace or community, a certain place you want to sink roots, things you want to accomplish with your life, a certain standard of living, a work environment preference, etc.)

THEN exploring how “all of what makes you You” can FIT into the WORLD of WORK!

I know. You are thinking:

I am so glad you asked!

Several career development web sites are available to you, free of charge, where you can take a short self-assessment which will quickly identify (with reasonable accuracy) your abilities, your interests, and your values!

Your results are then matched to vocations across numerous industries. The web site will provide you with a list of vocations that people with abilities, interests, and values similar to yours have selected for themselves.

YOUR MISSION, (should you choose to accept it): Scan the list (which will be long), and select just a FEW that pique your interest. Then DIVE IN! Click on the links provided to learn: job descriptions, likely wages, outlook for job opportunities, training required, where to obtain training, etc. It's AWESOME!

“Seriously! How would I even begin to figure out all the ways I fit into the WORLD of WORK?!”

“I would rather die of passion than of boredom.”
– Vincent Van Gogh

DISCLAIMER: These activities are NOT intended to reveal to you the ONE thing you were “MEANT TO BE.” Rather, they give you ideas for vocations that you may not yet have considered, OR maybe that you didn’t even know existed. They INCREASE the scope; they open your eyes to greater possibilities!

YOUR JOB is to investigate those that most interest you, and see which ones are (1) most in line with your desires for your life and (2) are realistic for your commitment level, training availability, and employment potential.
