TUTOR SPOTLIGHT

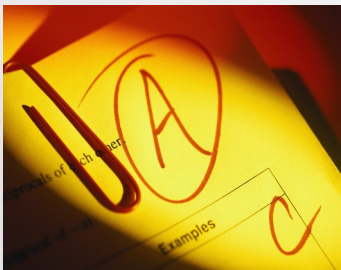

My name is Patrick Roberto. I am a Professional Tutor on the Ash Flat campus. My first semester at Ozarka College was during the fall semester of 2010-11, and I graduated in the spring of 2012. I then transferred to Lyon College, and I am one class away from obtaining an undergraduate degree in biology. I plan on continuing my education at graduate school in molecular biology; however, I must focus on Lyon College first. I believe I have learned a few things about studying over the years, and I am eager to assist anyone in need. One thing is for sure: the hardest part of college is mental. You have to tell yourself over and over that there is light at the end of the tunnel, and never quit.

Patrick tutors in English, Math, Science, Computer, & Study Skills

Come by the Ash Flat Campus to visit with Patrick!
Monday —Thursday..... 10am-2pm

Final exams are a few weeks away, but it is never too early to start getting ready for finals. Come by the TRIO Tutoring Lab for some tips and tricks to get ready for finals week!

Remember finals are
December 8th-12th!
